INTRO

On December 29, 2018, Berbena opened with only 14 wines from which to choose. By then, the meetings with potential distributors from whom we would buy wine were casual at best: with Julián we would meet in the cafe next door, and with Dani, if I remember correctly, we even got to taste on the terrace of my tiny flat in Gràcia.

Five and a half years later our cellar has grown to more than 400 labels. And now, finally, with great pride and effort, we present the Berbena wine list. Because it's time.

452	labels
296	single-variety wines
200	domaines and producers
198	reds and rosés
159	whites and skin contact wines
156	coupages
108	grape varieties
58	bubbles
45	regions
41	distributors
25	vintages
17	fortified
12	countries
8	styles
7	chefs
3	sommeliers
1	cellar

This is a tribute to all the winegrowers: to the esoteric of Pilar and her century-old vines; to the brave men of Javier and Alberto, and the pallets of Suañé that we spend; to the alchemist of Carles Muray and the demijohns of Els Encantats; to Roc and his quest to make Penedès great again; to Sara, and her Pesseroles 2020; to Damià and good ol' Manel, guardians of the small old vineyards of La Creu Alta; to Ignasi and Raul, restorers of history and sensible experimenters; to Isabel's feet on the ground and Alfredo's head in the clouds; as well as to the sages of Jordi and Jan (to mention them I think of love, heritage and Carinyena); to Carlitos Ortiz and Ester Nin; to Romain and his bees; to Charlotte and her grandfather (he escaped twice from the Nazis in Hungary); and of course, to the great Capitán – to Xurxo, the most endearing – thanks for the barnacles, the potato omelettes, and letting us sleep in a caravan in the middle of O Perciro.

And it is also a tribute to those we have yet to meet.

CREDITS & ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I want to thank Julián – and by extension Elisabeth and Sergio, the best delivery man in Barcelona. THANK YOU Julián, I have endless gratitude. Also, thank you Dani: you've always helped us unconditionally. And a big thank you to all the distributors that have entrusted us with their best wines (the list is long).

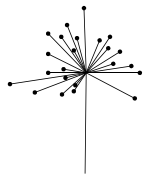

Thanks to the customers who have shared their passion for wine with us over the years. To Carl, Antonio Castelnuovo, the Petsolts, Daniel and Yoko, Angela Brown, Sharon (client and teacher), Jeppe and Josephine, Uli and Richard (sometimes they go in pairs), Martin, the “ Milos”, and Bob and Giada. To champagne lovers like Roxanne, Marcos, Virginia and Txema. And of course, to Dan Phillips, a great ass whom we love.

To my wife, Becca, with whom I've probably already shared half this list plus a few more. With her I have ventured to discover the wonderful world of champagne.

And to conclude, to the most important person in this little house as far as wine is concerned: Gonzalo. It is well said that the disciple surpasses the master. If it wasn't for him, this letter would never have been made. I will be eternally grateful.

Thank you Gonza.
